

I fully support the retention of the Morse requirement for Amateur Radio license for operation on the HF bands.

CW is the most efficient means of communications when propagation conditions are bad.

We need to retain the ability of Amateur Radio Operators to send and receive via CW. The Morse code requirement assures that we will continue to have operators who can do that.

I strongly urge the Commission to accept RM-10811 in its entirety.